

George Carleton – South St. Paul FD

George Carleton, Assistant Engineer – May 22, 1892

George Carleton, assistant engineer of South St. Paul Engine Co. No. 2 was killed when he fell into the fly wheel of the Stock Yard's feed elevator. Carleton had been a member of Engine Co. No. 2 for 18 months and was held in high esteem by his entire company.

Note: The South St. Paul FD combined with the West St. Paul FD in 2005 to become the South Metro FD.